SPEAKER & COACH

www.clearconceptinc.ca

Charlotte is a skilled speaker with expertise in engaging and practical workshops for fast-paced environments. She strives to help high performing individuals and organizations achieve long-term results.

Charlotte is committed to empowering people at all stages of their careers to do their best work. Her focus areas are productivity, collaboration, communication, mindset, presentation skills, and brainstorm facilitation.

Charlotte has over a decade of experience working with large corporations across industries, including numerous national and international law firms. She started her career as a Strategic Consultant giving her a deep understanding of how companies can optimize their performance. She quickly shifted her career to workshop facilitation and coaching, as this is where she truly shines.

Charlotte is trilingual and holds a Master's degree in International Marketing from ESC Rennes (France). Her trilingualism and international studies in five different countries give her a unique profile. Charlotte delivers workshops in both English and French.

When not inspiring others to reach new heights, Charlotte enjoys hiking in nature and relaxing by the fireplace.
