Leanne Cherry is a productivity and leadership coach who specializes in empowering high-performance individuals at all stages of their career.

As a skilled coach, Leanne uses a comprehensive and strategic approach to help legal professionals enhance their leadership style and sharpen their skills, so they can achieve their goals and perform at their best. Leanne's focus areas are productivity, collaboration, mindset, and wellbeing.

Leanne has over three decades of experience in professional development. Prior to joining Clear Concept, Leanne served as a Chief Talent Officer at a leading law firm, responsible for more than 2000 legal and business professionals.

Leanne blends her legal and business experience with her coaching expertise to partner with and support her clients to gain new skills and implement the tools they need to thrive personally and professionally.

Leanne has a JD from the University of Calgary and is an Associate Certified Coach with the International Coaching Federation.

Leanne is dedicated to learning and development and brings this passion to her work, along with a sense of humour.

Outside of work, Leanne is the proud mom of two young men and spends as much time outside as possible with her partner and trio of dogs. Leanne currently serves on the Board of the Women in Need Society, a social enterprise near and dear to her heart.
