Kim Neeson is a Coach and Speaker.

An award-winning entrepreneur in the legal industry and a successful corporate leader, Kim is uniquely suited to inspiring and empowering people to perform at their best.

Kim works with her clients to help them overcome challenges, so they can achieve and exceed their goals. Her executive coaching practice focuses on helping professionals develop their business through the lens of strategy, execution, consistency, and mindset, in line with their professional and personal aspirations.

Kim founded and grew her business into a multi-million-dollar enterprise. In 2019 she sold her business to the most significant player in her industry. Working with the acquiring company for three years as Regional Vice-President, Kim oversaw the growth of the business from Ontario to British Columbia, Canada, with the acquisition and integration of 10 other businesses.

Kim is a recognized speaker and writer and has presented in both Canada and the U.S. to lawyers, judges, and professionals across industries. She is a Professional Certified Coach (PCC) with the International Coaching Federation.

Outside of work, Kim is passionate about pickleball, cooking, and spending time with her Portuguese Water Dog, Jax.
